

Western Field Ornithologists
26th Annual Meeting
27-30 September, 2001 ~ Reno, Nevada

Conference Schedule

Thursday, September 27th

- 3:30-6:30pm: Registration, hallway outside Room Tahoe A&B
3:30-6:30pm: WFO Board Meeting, Tahoe B
5:00-6:30pm: Dinner on the town
6:30-7:30pm: Social Hour hosted by Lahontan Audubon Society, Donner Room
7:30pm: Welcome Program, Donner Room
Welcome to northwestern Nevada – Dave Straley, President, Lahontan Audubon Society
Welcome to WFO 2001 – Mike San Miguel, President, Western Field Ornithologists
Welcome lecture - "Shorebird Breeding in the Western Great Basin: Differences in Use of Space" – Dr. Lew Oring, University of Nevada, Reno

Friday, September 28th

- 5:15am: Continental breakfast, Tahoe B
6:00am: Field trips depart, motel lobby
12:30-2:00pm: Lunch on the town
12:30-7:30pm: Registration, hallway outside Tahoe A&B
12:30-2:00pm: Lunch on the town
2:00- 5:20pm: Paper Sessions, Tahoe A&B
5:30-7:30pm: Dinner on the town
7:30pm: WFO General Business Meeting and Announcements, Tahoe A&B
7:45pm: California Bird Records Committee Update – Kimball Garrett, Tahoe A&B
8:00pm: "Stump the Experts" Bird ID Panel, Tahoe A&B
Moderator: Joe Morlan

Saturday, September 29th

- 5:15am: Continental breakfast, Tahoe B
6:00am: Field trips depart, motel lobby
11:30-1:00pm: Lunch on the town
1:00-4:20pm: Paper Sessions, Tahoe A&B
6:30-7:30pm: Social Hour, Tahoe A&B
7:30pm: WFO Annual Dinner followed by keynote address, Tahoe A&B
"Enduring hope: the conservation of western Nevada's lakes and wetlands" - Graham Chisholm, a founder of the Great Basin Bird Observatory, former Director of the Nature Conservancy of Nevada, and currently Director of the Nature Conservancy of California.

Sunday, September 30th

- 4:30-5:45am: Continental breakfast, Tahoe B
5:00am: Full day field trips depart, motel lobby
6:00am: Half-day field trips depart, motel lobby
Conference closes after the Sunday field trips